Behold
As the lightning flashes from the east to the west
So shall the son of man appear
Behold
So shall the son of man appear

What are the signs?
How can you hear?
Let those who have eyes
And those who have ears hear
Behold
As the lightning flashes from the east to the west
So shall the son of man appear

No man
Cometh on to the father
But by me
Thy kingdom comes
Behold
So shall the son of man appear

And in that day
And of that time
Children will be having children
There will be many slanderers
And many things
Taking place
And what of the times and seasons
Should be mingled in together
With the changing of the weather
Shall shake the very earth

Behold
As the lightning flashes from the east to the west
So shall the son of man appear

Many shall come
Saying they are sent from the father
When they say
Go to the mountains

And you'll behold the Messiah
Stay as you are

Behold
As the lightning flashes
From the east to the west
So shall the son of man appear

Behold
