"Lame To Be"

Maybe I'm not lame
And maybe I'm not lame
Time won't hold my name
I just signed it away

Cause it's lame to be six feet underground
Shame to be lost inside the sound
Lost at sea and it's not time to drown
Lame to be six feet underground

For a lie
I won't let it ride
I don't want to die

I can't hold my breath
Months go by no less

Cause it's ten to three and there's no one around (You don't need to)
Reels go by and year go by and
