The day u said goodbye and u said u didn't want to see me cry made me try to be a better person please tell me

why u left me
the way u did can i have the truth
I want the honesty and if u rather lie The please ill try not to be rude but the way u broke my heart the day u made me in a lot of pain I could never forgive u Oh no i can't
I sing it over in a chant
I can't stand u anymore I have someone and the message goes on I hate u
don't come back
If u want to say sorry then move across the state don't even try to send yourself in a pack post yourself from ups Ill post ur ass right back I want to scream outoud sometimes
