I think that you are the only one
The only one for me
When you're not close my heart rules my head
I need you here with me

I'm gonna make my way
Jump on the fastest train tonight (I gotta see ya)
Flash down the motorway
I'll drive in the fastest lane tonight (feels right)

Cause you do something special
You know you do something special
Yeah you do something special (To me)

Cause you do something special
You know you do something special
Yeah you do something special (To me)

I've searched so long to find the one
The one that fits with me
Though circumstances mean we're far apart

Tonight I'll hold you near

I'm gonna make my way
Jump on the fastest train tonight (I gotta see ya)
Flash down the motorway
I'll drive in the fastest lane tonight (feels right)

Cause you do something special
You know you do something special
Yeah you do something special (To me)

Cause you do something special
You know you do something special
Yeah you do something special (To me)

Something special, yes
Something special You know you do something special
Something special, something special, something special
You know you know...
