I never knew I'd go the long way
To travel so far but yearning the old days
You stuck on my mind, ain't faded with time
I never knew that love could be over, over
Oh but never ending cause

I wish I never, wish I'd never told you to go
Cause now that it's over now, it's over now
I'm missing all of your love and affection
I wish I never, wish that I had never let go Cause now that I've figured out, and removed the doubt
I need somewhere for my love, love and affection

Sometimes you need to find out things the hard way
Not being with you is the price that I paid
You stuck on my mind, ain't faded with time
I never knew that love could be over, over
Oh but never ending cause

I wish I never, wish I'd never told you to go
Cause now that it's over now, it's over now

I'm missing all of your love and affection
I wish I never, wish that I had never let go
Cause now that I've figured out, and removed the
doubt
I need somewhere for my love and affection

I thought I knew it all, ignored the signs I saw Stuck in my selfish ways, I didn't care what you had to say
Now I'm here all alone, no one to blame or call Headed our separate ways, so many things I wish I could change

I wish I never, wish I'd never told you to go
Cause now that it's over now, it's over now
I'm missing all of your love and affection
I wish I never, wish that I had never let go
Cause now that I've figured out, and removed the

I need somewhere for my love, love and affection...
