"Beautiful Lies"

Every time the bluebird sings
A heart take wings to the sky
With bluebird grace
I'll fly outta my place in your eyes

'Cause after all I did what I could
And you did your best just the same
Nobody won, we both lost
No one's to blame

I'll fly away to you
Only pretending
We'll be like bluebirds too
Beautiful lies

After all I did what I could
You did your best just the same
Nobody won, we both lost
No one's to blame

I'll fly away to you
Only pretending
We'll be like bluebirds too
Beautiful lies

I'll fly away to you
Only pretending
We'll be like bluebirds too
Beautiful lies
