"Fool For The Woman"

I know that you got your problems
Them words won't leave your mind alone
But, man, that woman won't help you solve them
She'll just mess up your happy home
But you a fool,
You just a fool for that woman
You just a fool
You just a fool for that woman

You ain't nothin' but a fool for that woman
You can't even deny that it's true
Tell me why everytime she gets a headache
She's always got to give it to you
Cause you a fool,
You just a fool for that woman
You just a fool
You just a fool for that woman

A man like me needs a good woman
Who'll see his faults and still be kind
That woman makes you cold
And takes the good out of your soul
And she's makin' you old before your time
But you a fool, man,
You just a fool for that woman
You just a fool
You just a fool
