On the dark side of town
On the edge of the night
I cried in the darkness
Till I saw your light

Now wherever I go
Whatever I do
When I reach out for someone
I always find you

I am the person
Always hoped
I could make you see
And you are the first one
That's always been there
When I hoped you be
Whoa, lucky me

Whoa, lucky me
I'm one of the few
Who live in the sunlight
And dance on the dew

Whoa, lucky me
There's just too lucky few
Who reach out for someone
And find someone like you

Whoa, lucky me
I'm one of the few
Who live in the sunlight
And dance on the dew
