

Amateur Transplants

"Rodrigo, Rita And Elaine"

Visit "Rodrigo, Rita And Elaine" on MotoLyrics.com

Lone wolf: by the light of the moon I was watching last night

A scene that unfolded in the pale clear light

Two hot blooded women one blonde one tan

Stood in the darkness and fought about a man

Rita: "Rodrigo is my life please don't take him away

I can't live without him" I heard Rita say

"And if I can't live with him I'll be damned if you will Stay away from Rodrigo or be killed."

Lone wolf: the blonde's name was Elaine she was

Roger's legal wife

He'd married her in a younger time of life

A home and three children he'd all left behind

Along with his name when he crossed the borderline

Elaine: "Roger is my husband you can't have him now

I just want him back I don't love him anyhow

And I know that you do but I just don't care

Stay away from my husband or beware

Lone wolf: by the light of the moon I was watching last night

One wanted love one just wanted spite

They stood and they fought by the side of the road

And they waited until morning

But Rodrigo never showed

Visit Amateur Transplants page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.