Amateur Transplants ''Same Ol' Me''

Can't you see It's the same ol' me But it's a new day But I'm the same ol' boy That you once knew That made you feel so fine Since the howlin' we done I've decided who won And I'll be behavin' I'll go any place Do anythin' To make you mine See I'm not cross You can be your own boss We can make up the time That we have lost And see can we find a key To lock up a true love

I been out on the town
Kick it around
I started thinkin'
I do a back over flip
Off a plane or a ship
For you...
It couldn't do no harm
I bought a good luck charm
I hope it's workin'
Cause the state of my mind
Is half crazy all the time
And blue...

See I'm not cross
You can be your own boss
We can make up the time
That we have lost
You see can we find a key
To lock up a true love
A key to lock up a true love, love
A key to lock up a true love, love
A key to lock up it up for sure
