To be back again, what a feeling
Is it real or am I just dreaming
The time is right, another point in time
We're step now over the line

Just see... to rise...

Darkness comes to me, moonlight above Â– we are back again
Our heart was lost, wherever we were
Hundred tears are falling, raining over me
Flames of rising in the deepest sea
Our heart is lost, our soul forever too
A lighting cue

Endless dawn, biting sun
Overcome
Reign in madness for the growing heart
It's beginning to start
Now we're gone
We want your crown
Feel your heart Â– it's an ode to valahia

The mind is black, the mind is dark
A cure for the soul Â– nothing apart
The stars are shining, an angel in the night
No broken wings, a peaceful flight

Yes we're gone
We want you crown
In your lap we're laying now
Darkness falls
Exiting, what I feel
Yes we're gone
We want your crown
In your lap we're laying now
Darkness falls
Valahia in me
