I thought that you're an innocent
I thought that you're an honest man
With all of your insecurities
You made me falling all over you

But now I know just who you are
A worthless shit that coloured my life
You said you never cheat on me
But now you did it you cheated you did it you cheated

Reff:

Now you're gone
I'm gonna make you down
I'm gonna make you crush into the ground
And you're gone...
I'm gonna make you down
I'm gonna make you crush into the ground
And you're gone...

I trust you like you're one of my friends
I thought you never dissappoint me
But now I know just who you are
A worthless shit that coloured my life

I thought that you're an innocent
I thought that you're an honest man
You said you never cheat on me
But now you did it you cheated you did it you cheated

(Back to Reff)

And you're gone gone gone gone
You're going down down down down
Crushing to the ground ground ground ground
You're going down down down down
Crushing to the ground!
