( Heart is black, Hands are cold
Mind is focused on one thing
That one thing is you
For my pain )

You will die
Heart is black
Mind is focused on one thing
That one thing is you
For my pain

You will die

Why did you leave me standing there?
Now I'm nothing, I thought you cared

Why did you leave me standing there?
Now I'm nothing, I thought you cared

Why did you leave me standing there?
Now I'm nothing, I thought you cared

You offer up misguidance with your bleeding hands
The misguided path you left for me revealed your true character

To me you're nothing more...
To me will never be...
I used to hold on to you

To me you're nothing more...
To me will never be...
Never more will I rely on you
I used to hold on to you
Now I hold on to nothing
Never more will I rely on you

Never again...
Never again...

Why did you have to leave me, standing there?
Now I'm nothing

Why did you have to leave me, standing there?
Now I'm nothing
And for that you will
And for that you will die
