

Amen. The Animal "Blank Faces"

Visit "Blank Faces" on MotoLyrics.com

I lock the doors and shut out all the lights and let my body take over.

I cry out for these days to come and go
And then slowly sink to the bottom

Lift up my hands and raise my eyes
The sky is closing in.
And all I can see are blank faces

Staring back at me

Your love could save me
And make me stronger

So I pray

Father lift me up with your wings and carry me away
Lift me up with your wings and carry me away

So take me away
