I have seen the greatest minds
Sedated and raped
A generation of model citizens
Selling to the highest bidder

When everything stops
And there is only ragged laughter left
When everything is colourless and dull
You will finally know
You are empty and alone

You have only yourself to blame
Your weakness and fear
You're a trapped rat
Always searching for escape
Everything you've ever wanted
Denied to you
You are a trapped rat
Searching for escape

You have only yourself to blame
Your weakness and fear
You're a trapped rat
Always searching for escape
I'll let you fall
Back into the chaos
Like a diving bell

You're a fucking waste
Failure
Victim
Acidic
Malignant
You're empty and flawed
You've hit a social dead-end
Redundant
Submissive
Shallow
Vacant
You whore

We are all in the gutter

But some of us look for the stars
You have buried yourself in binary
Where is your vision?
You whore

A world revolving in locked grooves
Every pass drives the needle deeper
Every day is another dollar
And every dollar makes the walls much steeper
Even a clock strives to stop
Though time keeps ticking on

You have chosen the void
Everything repeating and cowering
Product of an uncertain age
No risk, no reward

You have only yourself to blame
You could have been someone
But you are a nothing
Any personality has been degraded

You have only yourself to blame
Rather serve nine to five
Than reign in uncertainty

You're a fucking waste
Failure
Victim
Acidic
Malignant
Redundant
Submissive
Shallow
You whore
