Line between many dimensions
Crossroad of millenary processions
The spoon full of the medicine
Cradle of the world I will leave
A spectre goes out from your borders
Here is my Muse protected by your five corners
I hear your calling from the underground
Where the lost obelisk utters the mute sound!

A dark lady toasts your power for the believers
On forgotten admissions...
She's turning to the greatest river
Which always cleans the caves of wisdom...

Your grey wind blows
From the eye of North...

A dark lady toasts your power for the believers
On forgotten admissions...
She's turning to the greatest river
Which always cleans the caves of wisdom...

Indestructible Augusta
Perceptible Augusta
Augusta your decorum
Augusta Taurinorum
Indestructible Augusta
Perceptible Augusta
Augusta your decorum
Augusta Taurinorum

(Scream)

Where the Fish is sculpted the entrance is denied,
So the Aquarium rises without delay
Living born from the crystals under my feet
Geometric sign, land of misteries
Guardian Angels show the hidden way
Believers celebrate your name on Friday
Into the lost villas which surround you
My ancient splendour...

Where the Fish is sculpted the entrance is denied,
So the Aquarium rises without delay
Living born from the crystals under my feet
Geometric sign, land of mysteries
Guardian Angels shows the hidden way
Believers celebrate your name on Friday
Into the lost villas which surround you
Decaying portals of ancient splendour

... My chant is for thee... (scream)

Majestic trees drink your deep affliction
Their large branches/ show my direction

Noble paradise I saw
Where coloured flowers grow
Mute is the rock inside the cold floor
Magic the air which knocks on my door
Just three turns around the great stone
Walking along the streets which I belong...

Indestructible Augusta
Perceptible Augusta
Augusta your decorum
Augusta Taurinorum
Indestructible Augusta
Perceptible Augusta
Augusta your decorum
Augusta Taurinorum

(Scream)

... For Thee...
