You should bite your tongue just to taste the blood, you fucking worthless, belligerent waste of god damn breath, I curse you. Can they read my mind? I would take the life of who brought you here. I stand with many. Will they see the signs?

Leave nothing left, the hunter and the prey, face down dying, coward, better pray

Hell begins in the womb of a dying mother, with her nerves on fire, lives in motion, brought us here.

I'm alive now can't you feel it? Bleed out, baby, bleed out, bleed out. It's inside you, and I need it, bleed out, baby, bleed out, bleed out.

I'm alive now can't you feel it? Bleed out, baby, bleed out, bleed out. It's inside you, and I need it, bleed out, baby, bleed out, bleed out.

I'm alive now, it's inside you.

You are the one who will fall on the back of the world.

I'm alive now can't you feel it? Bleed out, baby, bleed out, bleed out. It's inside you, and I need it, bleed out, baby, bleed out bleed out.

I'm alive now, it's inside you.

The gift of life is the currency of hate, relieved to breathe again, I need to feel you again.

I need to feel you again.
