"Feel Our Love"

Tonight, I could've held you tight while you cry,
(I never thought, "soon this will all be gone")
We'd make things right.
(All the memories we've set to sleep)
I could've held you tight while you say,
(They creep up on me, keep me awake)
"We'll be just fine"

Can you explain to me how you can walk away from all the shit that made us happy and made us cry? (x2)

We were supposed to be, forever...

We were supposed to be there, for each other
Like the time we dreamt to stay alive!
When you said you'd never leave me, leave us...

And I can feel our love it's like you never left I know I
gotta let you go,
But it's hard for me to say it's over, it's over.

You said you could've saved me, I'd feel alive, right now.
You should've loved me right and kept me yours,
I'd keep you mine.

And I can feel our love it's like you never left I know I
gotta let you go,
But it's hard for me to say it's over, it's over. (x2)
