Last time I saw your face I prayed that you'd stay,
Now I know you were just dying in my arms,
I want to see you only one last time,
To hold you while you die in me,

We've left the sea and now we're too late, and now
we're too late,
So pray by my side

I'll cut you and you'll scream so loud all fucking night, all fucking night.
We should've been there together for you,
But you went and opened a whole new world for yourself
(I will hide all your fear)
I'll hide your fear in your mind,
Let it all build up...

You set fire to our love,
You let it burn,
You watched it fucking burn! (x2)

You watched it fucking burn!
You watched it fucking burn!
