Why wait for stars to fall to make your wishes?
Why bother looking up when all you see are empty skies?

Blue eyes are blinding me tonight,
they try, they try to hide away from mine.

Your eyes show everything
As they reflect the light
We'll dance alone tonight
You don't have to say
To say, to say
You don't wanna know
To know, to know
Just tell me when you're ready to go

Just look at me, see what I see in you
And just one more dance will make things right again
Just let me hold you while the night dies young
Just know baby, I won't give up

Your eyes show everything
As they reflect the light
We'll dance alone tonight
You don't have to say
To say, to say
You don't wanna know
To know, to know
Just tell me when you're ready to go

You won't be lonely and baby you'll see
You'll watch me burn then fly away into the sky
Just tell me when you're ready to go
