Did you wonder if they would have remembered you?
Tonight it rains and days have passed since food is over...

Someone said that they've betrayed you
Is the world bad today? Surely it's more hypocrite

The callback of your voice
Hits me in my lonely nights
It's time to depart
To fight or vanish

I don't think I'm strong
How many think to be someone...
We miss the fight that can unite us
They think to have the right...

The only think that you can do
It's to carry in our hearts
The meaning of the struggle
The voice isolated by now it
Cannot resist oblivion
Surely I will never "... loose tenderness"

The calling of your voice
Hits me in my lonely night
It's time to depart
To fight or vanish
