I can't believe I'm the only one that makes plans
Weakened by the trouble of the others
Lost in this mug that slowly swallows me
I hold on knowing that everyone is like me...

They say: "There's a way out!"
I'd rather be deaf so I can't hear them
Always remember what you're aiming at
It's a pity that you lost the meaning of it

I can't believe I'm the only one that makes plans
Weakened by the trouble of the others
Lost in this mug that slowly swallows me
I hold on knowing that everyone is like me...

Shadow, it's not my fault if I'm this way...
My paranoia grows thanks to the
Nothingness that is my life
Still carrying on in what I am...
My shadow...
