INTRO/VERSE

My heart dangles from the thinnest lines
So tell me where to go from here
Let's make one thing clear, I'm gonna take what's mine
No matter what the circumstance it's always worth the many chances, come on
So come on

VERSE

I've tried hard through the past year and now
To come up with excuses on why I always do this to myself
Here comes another let down
And I know that you've been here from the start
You think your words will help, but they've helped us fall apart
Your words are nothing more than a poison to my heart

PRECHORUS

So let's breathe in slower
My mind is running circles and I see no escape
My weakness is showing now

CHORUS

Oh you'll never win
Pick yourself up and start it over again
You're always hearing them
With their so called truths
This story will never end

VERSE

So here it goes again
I'm slipping through the cracks
From all the memories I once lived for My world has changed again
I'm fitting to the footprints on everything that's made me a man

Breathe in slower
My mind is running circles and I see no escape
My weakness is showing

CHORUS (x2)

Oh you'll never win
Pick yourself up and start it over again
You're always hearing them
With their so called truths
Your story will never end

BRIDGE

With all I love
Oh I've seen enough

CHORUS

Oh you'll never win
Pick yourself up and start it over
You're always hearing them
With their so called truths
This story will never end
Never end
