INTRO

We got lost along the way from the fighting
I'm losing my mind more everyday
I'm sick of all the friends that remind me
She's bringing you down, bringing you down

VERSE

Who knows what's going on through your head
I hope it's me and how I'm not around
I'm sick of all the friends that remind me
That she's not around, she's not around
It was you who always told me forever
But forever's just not on our side
I'm sick of all the friends that remind me
She's bringing you down

CHORUS

I won't give up, give up on you now
But an answer from you would help me out
My tolerance has worn paper thin

VERSE

You're always hearing everything that they say
Am I the only one that sees it's a lie?
I'm sick of all your friends and all their ways
How they messed this up, there's nothing left to say

CHORUS (x2)

I won't give up, give up on you now
But an answer from you would help me out
My tolerance has worn paper thin

BRIDGE

And I found out that you knew about it all along
So I'll sit here and write another favorite song
To assure my thoughts on this path I've taken
I'll excuse what you did, 'cause you must be mistaken
And I know you never meant what you said
It's just another way of saying that you love me instead
But chasing this dream, and making this rhyme
Is better than spending any second of my time with you

CHORUS (x2)

Give up, give up on you now

But an answer from you would help me out

My tolerance has worn paper thin

OUTRO CHORUS

I'm not gonna give up, give up (x3)

No more waiting, I'm sick of forgiving (x2)
