What has become of the world we known
Darkened skies, when a storm is gathering
Cities on fire, are we lost into our dreams
Would you try to understand
Hopes and fears, on the wreckage of our wars
Burning battlefields, these dying memories

And when the rain is pouring down
It will not wash our sins away
Maybe one day we'Â€Â™ ll realize
That we are poisoning this world
I hope it'Â€Â™ s not too late

Another day for us to justify
Is it time for us to justify
I could drift away
But it'Â€Â™ s time for us to justify, justify

Wait here now, let'Â€Â™ s try to figure out
We have messed everything up
We'Â€Â™ re not alone, but we act as if we were Nevermore, are we lost into our dreams
Don'Â€Â™ t look back, it'Â€Â™ s time to build tomorrow
No way I just want to let you know
Nevermore, innocence is sacrificed
For the money for the fame, and still nobody'Â€Â™ s fault

And when the rain stops falling down
Will you forgive us for our sins
Are we too blind to see it clear
We are poisoning this world
Maybe it'Â€Â™ s not too late

Another day for us to justify
Is it time for us to justify
I could drift away
But it'Â€Â™ s time for us to justify, justify
Another day for us to justify
Is it time for us to justify
I could drift away
Guess it'Â€Â™ s time for us to justify, justify

Are you ready for a change
Will you learn from your mistakes
People are getting selfish, something never changes
This world's collapsing, it's dying

And as the world is going down
I feel ashamed of what we are
Are we too blind to understand
That we are poisoning our world
Maybe it's not too late

Another day for us to justify
Is it time for us to justify
I could drift away
But it's time for us to justify, justify
Another day for us to justify
Is it time for us to justify
I could drift away
Guess it's time for us to justify, justify

Justify your sin, the world is getting sick
Justify your dream, my world is crashing down
