Look at me waving my arms
Calling out the names of all the people that pass
Doing all my magic tricks, destroy myself and heal the sick
I sense danger in here

Look Mum no hands!
"Look son a car, best get off the road now"
That's alright I have other skills far beyond the run of the mill
I sense danger in here

Stand above me for just a moment and I'll turn liquid
In a lucid moment I'll crawl back to my highchair
Begging for my own forgiveness

Everyone loves getting into a hot bath
But I sense danger in here

So if you see my eyes roll up, pull the plug and pick me up
I feel faint now in here

Stand above me for just a moment and I'll turn liquid
And in a lucid moment I'll crawl back to my highchair
Begging for my own forgiveness

This is my confession
I am faced with a decision
Whenever I am in a position
Where I'm standing too high

If I'm standing too high
Stand above me for just a moment and I'll turn liquid
And in a lucid moment I'll crawl back to my highchair
Begging for my own forgiveness
