Alec Bridges - Everything in My Dreams

Life is nothing but a dream
I believe, the dreamer is everything in the dream
Who's dream am I?
I've found myself a thousand times, in my dreams, in my
I've lost myself a thousand times, in my dreams, in my I've loved myself a thousand times, in my dreams, in
my
I've fought myself a thousand times, in my dreams
And it's like a circle that never stops going 'round and
'round
'Round and 'round
Life is exactly what it seems Tell me, how can anything be anything other than what it is?
We can dream
I'm gonna bleed with everything in my dreams
When I cut my enemies, in my sleep, in my I've found myself a thousand times, in my dreams, in
my
I've loved myself a thousand times, in my dreams, in
my
And sometimes it makes me so dizzy that I feel like falling down
Falling down
Life is nothing but a dream
I believe, the dreamer is everything in the dream
Who's dream am I?
I've found myself a thousand times, in my dreams, in
my
I've lost myself a thousand times, in my dreams, in my I've loved myself a thousand times, in my dreams, in
my
I've lost myself a thousand times, in my dreams
And it's like a circle that never stops going 'round and
'round
'Round and 'round
