Alec Bridges - Slaves

The bridge is broken
And everything I've ever loved
Is stranded on the other side
I feel so far away from home
I see you standing there
And I'm caught within your perfect stare
And I am hanging on every breath you breathe
I want so bad to be free
But I am chained to the illusionary
Captivation that I've felt since my earliest day
I don't want to feel it any more
Won't you take it all away
But I see you standing there
And I'm caught within the wave
And I'm hanging on every breath you breathe
