Well she wants to get in and she wants to get out but the city it calls her name and the scars that she hides with those stars in her eyes like the echoes they're all the same

Cause it's all been done before yes it's all been done before

And oh, you can let this one go you can try on your own but I want you to be here and oh, now the signs are all quiet and the streets are all tired and I want you to be here

Well she's sick of this town and the walls in this house but her pride just won't let her see that when she swears that she's made with a heart that won't break she could be dead but she'd still believe

That it's all been done before

oh, I want you to be here

They can tell you that they want you to stay for what you've done they can tell you that it's alright to be what you've become and you go cause you know its for sure

Oh, we can let this one go
you can try on your own

And oh, now I tried to be quiet but this heart is on fire
and I want you to be here
I want you to be here
I want you to be here
