Let me drink from the living water,
Bringing life to my very core.
In the midst of my desperation, Jesus.

When I'm dry running on the empty,
Flow your streams of life through me.
You're the life giving water, Jesus.

Come, Come, Come to the river,
You are the living water.
Wash me clean, wash me clean.

In this place we have found freedom,
Cleansing streams have set us free.
You are all that we ever need, Jesus, Jesus.

Come, Come, Come to the river,
You are the living water.
Wash me clean, wash me clean.

Come, Come, Come to the river,
You are the living water.
Come through me, wash me clean.

I give You all of the praise,
No one else will ever take Your place, Your place.
I give You all of my days
No one else will ever take Your place, Your place.

Come, Come, Come to the river,
You are the living water.
Wash me clean, wash me clean.

Come, Come, Come to the river,
You are the living water.
Flow through me, wash me clean.
