Sometimes I need much more than just my dreams, to face tomorrow
Why can't I just do what it takes to finally breach through sorrow
I can't keep chasing things I can't achieve
I got to strive for what's within my reach Give me the strenght to accept what I can take Cause I know I can't keep going this way
Break through
Rearrange my life
Better do it fast
Cause I'm on a path where my freedom won't last
I can't afford to loose control again
Cause I know I will loose everything Sometimes I need much more than just my dreams to
face tomorrow
Why can't I just do what it takes to finally break through sorrow
Sometimes I need to feel the pain to know I'm still alive
Cause time and time again I find myself wishing to die
I had nothing more to believe in
I lost faith in everything
I had nothing more to believe in
I tried and I failed
Failed
