Storm has passed
Brought silence
In a new chapter of violence
Ignorance condemned us all
Hatred, bringer of chaos
The fury rages on
As you witness the brutality
Storm has passed
Brought silence
It's a new chapter of violence
Born to reach unavoidable faith
Greed, master of sins
Is crime against humanity
Slaying your kind with no remorse
Torn is shreds in agony
Insanity
Leaves me empty
Each instant dragging me
Closer until the end until I loose control
Overcoming defeat
To avoid extinction
To feed yourself you slay your kind and loose your mind
Consume the lust to satisfy
We're meant to kill, it burns inside
We're born to suffer, the urge to torture is stronger than compassion in your mind
