Crashed in life crowded against one another
Suffocated by the first in line
Awaken through violence with a broken mind
Fractured each day about a thousand times
Ignite the hatred towards the enemies
Lowered by the others 'till they cannot breath
Target their goals, take all, to keep
Take a deep breath in a dying breed

Back the fuck off
Back the fuck off me

Lead this life overwhelmed by hatred
False justice in the name of lies
The only difference is I will not die

Nothing changes
Nothing improves
No regrets

Surrender all you've ever needed
Take a deep breath in a dying breed

Back the fuck off
Back the fuck off me

Dying breed From this world I can't break free Everyday
I'm losing my mind
This suffocation is killing me
