Talk to me for a moment, listen to my words
I've got something I need to say, something that really needs to be heard
Let's not lose the simple joy, of the love between a girl and boy
We've been blessed , to find this thing
In - our - future - may - even be - a - ring

But time is time, and that should be fine
Especially if it's your and mine
In a crowded room, or all alone
With a fire place, or on the phone

When we first met, at the book store
You couldn't have ever wanted me more
You said hi, and I said hello
You asked me if I ever read Thoreau
I thought you were cute, you said I was fine
On that day we had such a good time
No money was spent, no plans were made
The only music playing was a love serenade

Because time is time, and that should be fine
Especially if it's yours and mine
In a crowded room, or all alone
With a fire place, or on the phone

Sharing a kiss or just being close
These are thing that I want the most Listen baby you have my heart
Top to bottom, and every part
I just want to be with you (babe)
All my words are sincere and true
Wooo woo woo ooooo
Lot of money and fancy things
Are not what makes this angel sing
Woooo
Now I would rather you hold my hand
And listen to me and understand
Be with me every chance you get
Making these moments we'll never forget
Just to be with you is enough for me

I hope these words will make you see
So listen to all I have to say
And we will never waist one minute of the day

Because time is time, and that should be fine
Especially if it's yours and mine
In a crowded room, or all alone
With a fire place, or on the phone
