I always thought that we would rendovous
Every time I said 'I'm thinking of you'.
I always wanted you to say je t'aime.
Even though we're just best friends
And you're just a reveur.

You said you didn't like your father, you said he was a secousse.
You said your sister always flirte avec le garcons.
Your mom liked to fish and cook the strangest repas.

You're just a reveur.
I'm just your fascination.
I can't possibly say je t'aime any more than you can,
anyway.

You are my... reveur.
