Now they live in your head and they travel your veins
Now they live in your head and they travel your veins
Every word that you speak is a word they have made
When you open your mouth you're too stupid to scream
When you open your mouth you're too stupid to scream

Your eyes are the holes where you suck in your knees
There's steel in the air and there's blood on the wheels
There's steel in the air and there's blood on the wheels
But there's nothing to fear because nothing here's real

Hear the dogs now they howl as the street fills with flood Yeah the dogs now they howl as the street fills with
flood

As your body drifts by and your lungs fill with mud There's some people on earth and they scrape in the dust
There's some people on earth and they scrape in the
dust

If we kill them enough they will look just like us
Now tear down this wall let the animals out Yeah tear down this wall let the criminals out Then they'll take their revenge, let their hate fill your mouth
And just as it was is just how it will be
And just as it was is just how it will be
For the promise of water I'll walk on my knees
