My mind feels like a tree today
Growing new buds on old branches
Carrying them away
To a new land the wind takes the seed
And we all grow together
But its not like the dream
We know the reality that can grow from a fury and fear

The dark sky in her fertile phase
Lifts her veil so I can see her veins
Flowing across the night
She carries change all through the web of life
And weaves her beauty in my eyes
So they dont forget
Visions that she answered me with
And shell come to me again
Between slumber and awake
After the dream

Oh yes, oh yes she lives again
Oh yes, oh yes she dies again
Oh yes and then to live again

Now love shows me an open door
I feel the pull and break away
To another shore
Across the land a sunny brighter day
And when I reach down in my soul
I must go deep
To find the nymph so young and new
And now she must lead my way
On the paths of yesterday
And I did forget
The spirit that she answered me with
Thats how I lost my way
From the freedom of the nymph
So young and new

Oh come, oh come come back again
Oh come my friend to me again
I need a friend in me again

And the unity I feel with you
Is the only thing thats real to me
And the only thing unreal to me now
You figure it out hey-
Im the maiden, mother and crone
You figure it out hey-
I will never leave you alone
I am spirit I will come to you when you sleep
I am matter you have dug me up from the deep

Every woman has it in her
We just have to dig so deep
We just have to get to the radical seed
You figure it out hey-
Im the maiden, mother and crone
You figure it out hey-
I will never leave you alone
I am spirit I will come to you when you sleep
I am matter you have dug me up from the deep

We just have to get to the radish
We just have to get to the root
We just have to get to the radical seed
