

Anger "Another Game"

Visit "Another Game" on MotoLyrics.com

Where's the pride, where's the strength
Where's the glowing of your eyes
Where's the smile, confidence
That you once had towards life

Here I lay down and pray
Here I dream, here I wait
Here I weep silently
Search a dream where I can be

Better hurry life is calling out my name
Is this for real now or just another game

Need a dream, need a life
Need a joy and need a cry
Seek emotions, learn to fly
Leave the nest, give it a try

Need a glimpse at the star
That can guide me in the night
Need a bliss, a ray of light
Need to be one of a kind

You're making me bleed
You're making me bleed
