

Anger "Feel My Anger"

You're pulling me back, you're pushing me forward
You're pushing me from side to side
Takin' my breath, holding me down
Why should I really care about

Making me sick, crossing the line
You keep on waisting my time
Don't lower your defense, you shouldn't get slack
'cos I'm about to cut the crap

Can you
Feel my
Anger

You're talking too much, you're driving me nuts

You better keep your mouth shut
One minute of smoke, a good laughing joke
I guess it wouldn't kill the pope

I'm coming to you, I'm coming to you
You're gonna wish it wasn't true
I'm one in a million, a million to one
My anger weights a mega ton

I'm coming to you
I'm coming, I'm coming, I'm coming to you

Anger
