Join me...
Rise up with me...
Rise up on the wings of this slain angel...

I choose to fight back!

We'll rebuild on the soul of this little warrior.
We will pick up his standard and raise it high!
Carry it forward...

Raise it high!

I choose to fight back...

Are we asking too much for this?
Is it beyond our reach?!
Because if it is, then we are nothing but sheep being herded to the final slaughterhouse!
I will not go down that way!
I choose to fight back!

I choose to rise, not fall!
I choose to live, not die!
And I know, I know that what's within me is also within you!

I choose to fight back!

I will not go down that way!

We'll rebuild on the soul of this little warrior.
We will pick up his standard and raise it high!
Carry it forward...

Raise it high!

I choose to fight back...
