I play my music for me
I don't play my music to entertain people
I play my music because, I am my music
I ain't looking for no followers
I'm looking to survive
You're gonna be responsible for your actions
I'm not your leader
I'm not your follower
I play my music for me
I can do what I do by myself
I don't need nobody

I can do what I do by myself

But I put my soul into the sound

That's in my music, you see
That's why they won't let me get out
And then every time they keep that music out
Then all the kids rage out and kill a bunch of people
And then they say;
Woh, you're fucked up - Why are we fucked up
Who to says you can put your music up over my music
You dig what I'm saying?
You put your voice upon my voice
You say your God is bigger then my God

You put your voice upon my voice

But now I can't get all these people
That are trying to be and do like me
You dig what I'm saying?
In other words like I got all this fucking attention on me
You dig what I'm saying?
Now how do I get away from 'em?

And I trust the very same person that you do
I trust the only person left to trust; Me

You put your voice upon my voice
You say your God is bigger then my God

But now I can't get all these people
That are trying to be and do like me
You dig what I'm saying?
In other words like I got all this fucking attention on me
You dig what I'm saying?
Now how do I get away from 'em?
