Verse 1

I see oceans of passion
When I look in your eyes
Nothing can come between us
We stand united in love
Now I don't know what I would do without you.
I know for sure my heart has found it's home.

Chorus

Won't stop loving you
All of my life through
You are the rock that my world stands on too
You bring the sun out
When I'm feeling blue
I won't stop loving you

Verse 2

I see you in your glory
When I walk through my dreams
Your smile always beams brightly
Darkness soon disappears.
I feel that I'm so lucky to have found you
Now you're the only one I'll ever need.

Chorus

Won't stop loving you
All of my life through
You are the rock that my world stands on too
You bring the sun out
When I'm feeling blue
I won't stop loving you

Middle

Though the storms of life rage round us
And at times we'll lose our way
That's when we show our true colours
Love always wins the day

Chorus

Won't stop loving you
All of my life through
You are the rock that my world stands on too
You bring the sun out
When I'm feeling blue
I won't stop loving you
I won't stop loving you hooo

I wont stop loving yooo
