"Doomed At Birth"

You shatter the ground with your own dead life!
All your dreams rot, watch them die!
Why do you do this, why are you dead?
All you, billions, no tears to shed!

All the forlornness, all the hurt!
I should have known that I am DOOMED AT BIRTH!
Some more suffering, one more urge!
Don't you know that we are DOOMED AT BIRTH!
(X2)

So many tries, but no end in sight!
You pull yourself up, but you end back in the Blight!
All that's positive now is dead!
All you, billions, no tears to shed!

All the forlornness, all the hurt!
I should have known that I am DOOMED AT BIRTH!
Some more suffering, one more surge!
Don't you know that we are DOOMED AT BIRTH!
(X2)
