You're the center of your universe
Gotta believe in yourself!

You are the center of your universe believe me
You are the center of your universe believe in yourself

There is a light, shining deep inside of you
Anything you want, you can make it all come true
Just keep on walking in the light
It won't be easy, but it's gonna be all right
I promise you, I promise you

Everything evolves around you
Magical stars surround you
Everything evolves around you
There's no limit to what you can do

(Cause you) are the center of your universe
Believe me
You are the center of your universe
Believe in yourself

Don't ever say, that you can't carry on
Just keep on fighting it will make you
Ooh so strong
If you just realize how truly blessed you are You're gonna make it, gonna take it oh so far
Believe me

Everything evolves around you
Magical stars surround you
Everything evolves around you
There's no limit to what you can do

Believe in yourself
Just keep believing
Keep on fighting
It will make you strong

You are the center of your universe
Gotta believe in yourself
Everything evolves around

Theres no limit, theres no limit
No,no, no
No, no, no
No, no, no limit!
