"Promised Land"

Since you're away there is nothing to hold me
Love for life is gone
Beg you to stay I need someone to show me
My love is the only one

I wanna stay tonight
I know that you love me like before
Tell me you're gonna trust me now
You'll be mine
Just a while

I need you baby understand
That you are my promised land
Don't you know why
Take a chance and fall in love
I need you baby understand
That you are my promised land
Don't you say goodbye
Take a chance and fall in love

Baby I'm asking you please understand me
I can't let you go
All that I have I will give you believe me
Look at me and you will know
