You've got so many stories to tell
You said that I'm, I'm the only one and very well to me
And I feel safe and warm, in your arms again

You go away and my heart drops into
A hole of pain, a hole of pain
I want you are my love my darling,
My only one I know

Take me to away where nothing hurts
Where I can be by myself

With your sweet arts again
Melt me in your arms, in your body
Where I can be by myself
With your so sweet love
The way you hold,
The way you hold me last night
The way you walk in the morning by my side
The way you looked at me
There's no need to wordspell
There's no need to speak
