In my dreams I walk free
All the lovely memories
Green the fields, calm the sea
Come and walk away with me
Sun, air, breathe, clouds, rain, mist, fog,
As we run back to our home
Feel the wind, sense we're not alone
From beneath and from within

Unrest roars, a storm begins
All these ghosts appear in my mind
Signalling the end of my life
Hands up as they wave goodbye
And I step into the darkest of nights
From my stomach deepest fear
I will not get out of here
-agaaaaaaaaaaaain-
