

Another Sunny Day "Horseriding"

I spent Monday waiting for you,
Tuesday waiting too
I awoke at five on Wednesday
Crying from a dream
Well, I know they're not your problems
But if you could help me solve them
Then I'd be so very grateful

Downstairs I feel so different
Though everything's the same
And if I don't see you soon
I'm going to kill myself
Perhaps I'll get over you
But I don't think I've the power
'Cause today I felt so good
Because I didn't think of you for almost an hour
Well, I know they're not your problems
But if you could help me solve them
Then I'd be so very grateful
So very grateful
