Don't want to see you again
I count the days you are
Sober and sane

I've never seen this before
But you will not be here no more

And you'll come with me
'Cause you can see me not being sorry
And you'll let me show you
You and me can't see fully in there
Can't see fully in there

You really startled me in there
Just to fake all my dreams
It's like someones been there before again
It's like everything you need

You really startled me in there
Just to fake all my dreams
It's like someones been there before again
It's like everything, everything you mean

Hold on, you would have said
You wont let me forget
The sadness of man
I've never seen this before
I can't stand to be here no more

And you'll come with me
'Cause you can see me not being sorry
And you'll let me show you
You and me can't see fully in there
Can't see fully in there

You really startled me in there
Just to fake all my dreams
It's like someones been there before again
It's like everything you need

You really startled me in there
Just to fake all my dreams

It's like someones been there before again
It's like everything you need
