Nothing to lose, nothing to gain
I've the choices of all I can change
There's something more in us
I can't explain
We walk side by side
And it's not in vain

I'm in the voodoo dream
Opening my senses
I am in endless fields
Of disturbances
Can feel this voodoo dream
Covering my skin
It's like an awakening
I feel so pure, so clean

Make my senses not control my pain

Make my heart bleed and let's turn the page
Take this sickness out of me
Make me breathe again
Cause sometimes I feel so weird
But we're just the same

I'm in the voodoo dream
Opening my senses
I am in endless fields
Of disturbances
Can feel this voodoo dream
Covering my skin
It's like an awakening
I feel so pure, so clean
